Reboletti Urges Governor to Halt Union Pay Raises

Addison... As a cost-saving measure for Illinois budget, State Representative Dennis Reboletti (R-Elmhurst) sponsored a resolution urging Governor Quinn to re-open state employee union contracts and remove $336.2 million in pay raises.

“Illinois is facing a $13 billion budget deficit and lawmakers were just sent home from session while Democrat leaders .

House Resolution 1218 urges Governor Quinn to reopen collective bargaining agreements to remove pay raises as a means to reduce state expenditures and ensure the additional funding is directed to education and social services programs.
